What a Chicago Merchant Thinks of a Student of Duff's College, Pittsburgh.

"The crowning excellence of your system of Book-keeping is the judicious abridgement of all unnecessary details and repetitions, reducing the time of study to about half that required in other Commercial Colleges. And my employer says he has never seen a person direct from College that went ahead with all their books so promptly and accurately as I have.

Book-keeper for Ignatz & Herzog, Merchants, Chicago, Ill.

Bill Shakspeare and Cassius.

"Let me have men about me that are fat, sleek headed men—Yon Cassius has a lean and hungry look; such men are dangerous." So said Shakspeare. Now Cassius, like many another simple man, was slim because he knew not how to appreciate good living. If he were living to-day he would not be reproached because lean, for at Holtzheimer's Continental Saloon, he would repair like all sensible men do, and partake of the splendidly gotten up meals and be as sleek and fat as his tormentor. Cassius would appreciate Holtzheimer's bill of fare and would be one of the numerous patrons who throng this popular restaurant day and night. As Cassius is dead, we can only advise lean men like him to patronize no other restaurant than the Continental, next door to the Post office Fifth street, unless they want to keep lean and spare-boned.

Beauty Fades Away.

"Beauty is but a vain and doubtful good—
A shining gloss that fadeth suddenly,
A flower that dies when first it 'gins to bud,
A brittle glass that is broken presently,
A doubtful good, a gloss, a glass, a flower,
Lost, faded, broken, dead within an hour."

So much, truthfully says the poet. We should not wait for the morrow, but while health and beauty rest with us, should have one of those excellent, time lasting sun shadows which none but Dabbs, 26 St. Clair street, takes so admirably. We owe it as a duty to our friends, if not to ourselves, that our portraits be taken ere time or disease defaces what beauty may have been given us. Mr. Dabbs takes all styles of pictures, from the tiny miniature or watch-dial portrait to full life size cabinet photograph. His works of art will compare favorably with any exhibited in the photograph line in America. Pictures are taken equally as well in all weather.

Taking Cold.

A thaw having set in, and the consequence being that people are disposed to feel very warm, and are careless in their habits, a little advice, as to the easiest manner of gratifying such as may be anxious to give the doctors something to do, may not be out of place. At this season persons who are partial to rheumatism should wear thin boots and be careful to keep them well soaked in snow water. A quick fever can be secured by leaving off overcoats. Neuralgic complaints are open to all who walk till they become heated, and then stop at the corner of a street and cool off by a genial chat with some good fellow. Coughs are free to all who will insist upon throwing open their coats in order to catch the gentle South breeze which prevails. The ladies are such thorough experts in this art that we need not offer them any suggestions, but by abandoning their cloaks and rubbers, and resorting to their boots and shawls, they will reach a gruel diet by a short cut.

The Philadelphia Ledger is responsible for the above. Dr. KEYSER says that nineteen out of every twenty of the cases, brought on by the causes above referred to, can be relieved and cured in less than forty-eight hours by a few doses of his PECTORAL SYRUP, which is one of the best and most effectual deobstruants ever compounded. Hundreds of colds could be cut short, loathsome catarrhs remedied, and consumptions arrested by the use of Dr. Keyser's invaluable PECTORAL SYRUP and at the saving of as many dollars as it costs cents. Prepared at 140 Wood street. Dr. Keyser's consultation rooms for examinations 120 Penn street, from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M.

FROM HARRISBURG.

THE BILL DEFEATED, RECONSIDERED AND INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.

The Vote 13 for the Bill and 17 Against It.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, February 15, 1867.

SENATE.

The Senate, this morning, resumed the consideration of the bill, to re-charter the Connellsville Railway Company. The vote on the passage of the bill, was taken at eleven A. M., and stood thirteen ayes to seventeen nays.

A motion to reconsider the vote was made and carried, and the bill was then postponed indefinitely, which kills this bill effectually, in the Senate for the present session.

The following bills were passed:

An act relating to restaurants in Washington county.

An act to vacate the burial ground in Sewickley, and remove the dead bodies therefrom.

An act relative to livery stable keepers, in Mercer County.

An act to incorporate the Sandusky and Irwin street bridge.

HOUSE.

The Committee on Federal Relations reported the joint resolution requesting Congress to reimburse the loyal States for bounties paid to volunteers; also, the resolution protesting against the confirmation of Edgar Cowan as Minister to Austria; also the resolution asking the repeal of the tax on State banks; also the resolution in favor of the repeal of the neutrality laws.

The following bills in place were read:

By Mr. McKee: A supplement to the act incorporating the borough of Lawrenceville.

By Mr. Wilson: An act to pave and grade the streets in McKeesport; also an act incorporating the Eagle Cotton Manufacturing Company.

By Mr. Chadwick: A supplement to the act incorporating the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society.

By Mr. Colville: An act relating to pawn brokers in Allegheny county.

By Mr. Mechling: An act to incorporate the Armstrong County Bank.

By Mr. Quay: An act to divide New Brighton into three wards; also, an act to divorce W. C. Gray and Lucinda Gray; also, an act to repeal the charter of the Anthracite Railroad Company.

By Mr. Waddell: An act directing and allowing liens for monies due the Commonwealth for lands held by virtue of location, and regulating the fees of the Surveyor General.

Mr. Pennypacker: To compel the Recorder of Deeds in all counties in the Commonwealth to record the names of honorably discharged soldiers.

The act to allow the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to increase its capital stock, and granting the Company other privileges, being on its third reading, was strenuously opposed by Messrs. Meyers, Boyle and Jenks. Postponed after considerable debate.

Adjourned.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, February 15, 1867.

SENATE.

TENURE OF OFFICE BILL.

Messrs. Williams Sherman and Buckalew were appointed a Conference Committee on the bill to regulate the tenure of certain civil officers.

A SINGULAR REMONSTRANCE.

Mr. SUMNER, presented a remonstrance from the French Canadians, residents of United States, against the anexation of Confederation of British Provinces. Referred to the Committee of Foreign Relations.

PRINTING ORDERED.

Mr. ANTHONY, from the Committee on Printing, reported a resolution to print five thousand copies of the report of General Warren, of the survey of the Upper Mississipp, which passed.

Mr. ANTHONY reported a resolution to appropriate the necessary funds to print the roster of the Union troops furnished by Arkansas. He said it would cost about $500. Passed.

TO PREVENT SMUGGLING.

Mr. CHANDLER, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill to amend the act to prevent smuggling. Passed.

MONUMENTS TO SENATORS.

Mr. POLAND offered a resolution instructing the Sergeant-at-Arms to cause monuments to be erected in the Congressional Cemetery to the memory of Senators who have died since July 4th, 1861.

Mr. GRIMES objected to the resolution, and it goes over.

APPEALS TO THE SUPREME COURT.

Mr. HARRIS reported from the Committee on Judiciary, a bill relating to appeals and writs of error in the Supreme Court, with an amendment, in the form of a substitute, providing that in cases of appeals or writs of error brought to the Supreme Court of the United States, from any final judgment of an inferior Court, for any judicial district in which, subsequently to the rendition of such judgment, regular sessions of such Court have been suspended by the rebellion, such appeal or writ of error shall be valid, notwithstanding the time limited by law for bringing the same may have expired; and in cases where no appeal has been brought, such appeal may be brought within one year from the passage of this act.

The Niagara Ship Canal bill was ordered to be printed.

MILITARY CLAIMS.

Mr. WILSON reported from the Military Committee, with amendments, the bill providing for the appointment of a Commission of officers for several States named, to hear and decide upon the validity of claims for quartermasters stores, &c., furnished by loyal persons to the the United States army during the rebellion. The amendments include Ohio and Indiana, with Virginia as districted by the bill.

Mr. LANE reported the House Joint Resolution, extending to the Court of Claims Jurisdiction in cases of claims for quartermasters' stores, furnished forces of General Lew Wallace during Morgan's raid through Indiana and Ohio.

THE RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

The Reconstruction bill was taken up and read.

Mr. JOHNSTON, submitted as an amendment, the Blaine amendment defeated in the House.

Mr. STEWART argued in favor of the amendment.

Mr. WILSON moved to amend the Blaine amendment by adding to, what the Southern States must do before being entitled to representation, the following: "and having provided by their constitution and laws, that all citizens of the United States shall equally possess the right to pursue all lawful avocations and business, and receive the equal benefits of public schools and have equal rights of citizens of the United States in said State." He should vote for this bill with or without amendment.

Mr. HOWARD objected to the Blaine amendment, because it recognized the validity of the State Governments of the rebel States.

Mr. WILLIAMS expressed the hope that no amendments would be adopted. He would prefer such a proposition as that of the Blaine amendment be passed independently.

Mr. STEWART again deprecated Military Governments at the South, without such amendment to the bill as now before the Senate.

Mr. MORRILL advocated the bill, with or without the amendment.

Mr. HENDERSON advocated universal suffrage.

Mr. YATES spoke in favor of the bill.

After further debate, Mr. WILLIAMS, at half-past four moved a recess, giving notice that he would expect the Senate to set until it passed the bill.

Recess was taken.

Evening Session.—Mr. WILSON introduced the following, which was ordered to be printed: "A Bill proposing conditions upon which the States lately in rebellion may resume their practical relations to the Government of the United States."

The reconstruction bill was taken up.

Mr. WILSON'S amendment was disagreed to.

Mr. HENDRICKS moved to amend by inserting the word "impartial" before the word suffrage, in the amendment of Blaine's.

After debate, Mr. HENDRICKS by request, withdrew his amendment to insert the word impartial, and said he would offer it at some other time.

Mr. HOWARD opposed the amendment as a complete departure from the intention of the Committee on Reconstruction. So far as the right of suffrage is concerned, the regulations of it was a sacred right of the State. He had no fears of a military despotism.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN moved to amend the Blaine amendment by providing that voters shall have their residence in the State one yeer.

Mr. JOHNSON accepted the amendment.

Mr. WILLIAMS appealed to the Senate to vote on the Blaine amendment without further debate.

Mr. HENDERSON said he could not vote for the bill, unless it contained some provisions for the establishment of civil government in the Southern States.

Mr. BROWN gave notice of an amendment to the bill, providing that military commanders of districts shall require universal suffrage in all districts held under their control.

Mr. HENDRICKS spoke against the bill as a military usurpation and an insidious and cowardly attack upon liberty.

At midnight, Mr. Wilson suggested that an arrangement be made to take the vote to-morrow night. A discussion occurred.

Mr. HENDRICKS, for the minority, disclaimed any intention to make factious opposition or delay the vote on the bill.

At 12:30 it was moved the Senate adjourn; negatived, 8 against 26.

Mr. HENDERSON moved an amendment to the Blaine amendment, which was adopted, as follows: "To strike out the words all male citizens of the United States twenty-one years of age and upward, and without regard to race, color or previous condition of servitude, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the late rebellion, felony at common laws," and insert in lieu the following: "All male citizens of the United States, of whatever color, race or condition, twenty-one years old and upwards, who may have been residents of the State for twelve months previous to the election, except such as may be disqualified for participation in the rebellion, felony at common law, idiocy, or insanity."

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN moved to amend by inserting a proviso that the Constitution of the States shall be framed by a Convention of delegates elected by persons who may vote upon the abrogation or rejection of the Constitution as hereafter provided. Adopted.

Mr. SUMNER moved to amend by providing that the Constitutional Amendment shall be valid when ratified by three-fourths of the Legislatures of the States now represented in Congress.

At 1:30 the Senate again refused to adjourn.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

On motion of Mr. WILSON, of Ohio, the Secretary of State was directed to inform the House what States, now represented in the House, have ratified the Constitutional Amendment, in addition to those communicated in the report of February 5th.

PRIVATE BILLS.

Several private bills were passed, including credits of $2,000 to J. Almonson Eaton, Receiver of Public Moneys at Stevens' Point, Wisconsin; of $10,850 to Thos. J. Fry, Capt. and Assistant Quartermaster of Volunteers at Alton, Illinois, for money taken from his office; James J. Hudnall, Collector of the Sixth District of Kentucky, for public money lost by him in Petersburg, Kentucky, August 16th, 1866.

The House bill construing and giving effect to the resolution of July 1st, 1864, for the relief of States, was considered and referred to the Committee of the Whole on the Private Calender.

BOUNTY TO SOLDIERS.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bounty bill. Mr. SCHENCK explained its provision. It was the same, he said, as passed the House last session, but was not acted on by the Senate, with two differences—one providing for the cases of the last discharges, and one made necessary allowances of additional bounty, made by the act of July 28th, 1866. This bill proposed, to a certain extent, to equalize bounties, where as the act of July 28th, 1866, only gave additional bounties to all soldiers. It was impracticable, in the present condition of the treasury, to bring the bounties of all soldiers up to the standard of the highest bounties paid; some soldiers having received as high as $1,200 and $1,500. The standard adopted by the committee, and which met the approval of the House last session, was to secure to each soldier as much as one hundred dollars a year bounty. The bill was not to give bounty to those who had received much, but to those who received little or nothing. The Committee had adopted the simple principle that to every man who served the government faithfully, and had been honorably discharged, no matter how he entered the service, shall be given a bounty proportionate to the length of time of service. If he served one month he will receive $8.33⅓; if taree months, $25; if one year, $100; if two years, $200; and so on.

Several members desired to offer amendments, but Mr. SCHENCK declined to allow them. In the course of the debate he stated that the estimate of the Committee of the amount of money required under the bill was between seventy-five and eighty million dollars; the War Department estimate, however, was four hundred and eighty millions.

The House seconded the previous question on the bill, 74 to 72, but rejected the call for the main question, 78 against 85, so the bill is left over for amendment.

Mr. BENJAMIN moved an amendment to include some of Missouri and Maryland volunteers and slaves.

Mr. ROLLINS moved an amendment by striking out the second section of the clause making deductions for local bounties.

Mr. STEVENS moved an amendment by striking out the section repealing the additional bounty act of July 28th, 1866.

Mr. TAYLOR, of Tennessee, moved to strike out the exception of prisoners of war who enlisted in the service of the United States.

Mr. ROLLINS then moved the previous question, which was seconded and the question ordered.

Mr. SCHENCK yielded the floor to Mr. KASSON, who opposed Mr. Rollin's amendment, contending that the effect would be to tax the Western States for additional bounties to soldiers of Eastern States, who had already received large bounties. The amendment was destructive of the principle of the bill, and would eventually defeat it.

Mr. ROSSEAU asked Mr. Kasson whether the effect of the amendment would be to pay the soldiers who had received high bounties as much as those who had received none.

Mr. KASSON replied that was the effect of it.

Mr. ROLLINS asked Mr. Kasson whether it would deprive the Western States of the right to pay soldiers as much bounty as the Eastern States paid their's.

Mr. KASSON thought the question like a rich man asking a poor man whether the poor man had not the same right to build a palace as the rich man had. The soldiers from the Western Stetes had gone into the army animated by patriotism which knew no money and had wanted no bounty. It was that class of men that the bill proposed to take care of.

Mr. SCHENCK repeated his argument in support of the bill as reported, and against the amendment.

Messrs. LE BLOND, GRINNELL and BROOMALL spoke in favor of the bill unamended.

The debate closed, and the House proceeded to vote on the amendments.

Mr. Benjamin's was adopted without a division.

Mr. Rollins' was rejected, 74 against 85—the Western members voting solidly against it and the Eastern members generally for it.

Mr. STEVENS withdrew his amendment.

Mr. SHELLABARGER moved an amendment, adding a clause to the last section relative to applications for bounty. Adopted.

The bill passed, 95 against 58.

THE BANKRUPT BILL.

The Senate amendments to the House bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States coming up, Mr. STEVENS moved to lay the amendments on the table; rejected, 63 to 65.

MINING STATISTICS.

Evening Session.—The SPEAKER presented a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, with the preliminary report of J. W. Taylor, Special Commissioner for the collection of statistics on gold and silver mines and mining east of the Rocky Mountains. Referred and ordered to be printed.

WEST VIRGINIA CLAIMS.

Mr. WHALLEY presented joint resolutions of the Legislature of West Virginia asking additional pensions for surviving soldiers of the war of 1812; and asking additional appropriations of land to aid in establishing agricultural colleges; and also asking an appropriation to aid in building certain roads and bridges destroyed during the war.

INTERNAL TAXES.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Internal Revenue bill.

Mr. MYERS' amendment, proposing to make the tax on cigarettes, cigars and cheroots of all descriptions, made of tobacco or any substitute, $5 per thousand, was debated, but on coming to a vote no quorum was found to be present, and the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, February 15, 1867.

ALL NIGHT SESSION OF THE SENATE.

There is every prospect of an all night session of the Senate, in the consideration of the House Military Government bill for the Southern States. The majority appear determined to get the bill in such shape that it may be passed finally to-morrow. The Blaine amendment offered in the House is pending. At half-past one o'clock this (Saturday) morning there appears to be no prospect of a speedy adjournment.

MR. WILSON'S PLAN OF RECONSTRUCTION.

In the Senate, at the evening session, Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, submitted a bill defining the terms upon which the Southern States may be admitted to representation. The plan assumes that the Constitutional Amendment proposed at the last session of Congress, has already been ratified by a sufficient number of States to ensure its entire legality as a part of the organic law. The following is Mr. Wilson's bill, which was merely read this evening, and ordered to be printed:

Be it enacted, &c., That the 14th article of the amendment to the Constitution, having been duly ratified by the Legislatures of the requisite number of States, the same is hereby declared duly ratified, and part of the Constitution of the United States, and valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States; and when any of the States lately in insurrection shall have ratified the same and shall have modified their Constitutions and laws in conformity therewith, and shall have secured equal and impartial suffrage to all male citizens of the United States who have attained the age of twenty-one years, and resided in the State one year, and town, parish, city, district or county three months next preceding the day of election, without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the late rebellion, in the election for Presidential Electors, Representatives in Congress, and in any and all elections for Governor, and for all State, county, district, parish, city or town officers, and has provided by its Constitution and laws that all citizens of the United States shall equally possess the right to pursue all lawful avocations and business, to receive the equal benefit of the public schools, and have the equal protection of all citizens of the United States in said State; and when said Constitution shall be submitted to the voters of said States, as thus defined, for ratification or rejection, and when the Constitution, if ratified by the people of said State, shall be submitted to Congress, for examination and approval—said State shall, if its Constitution be approved by Congress, be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom on taking the oath prescribed by law.

A NOVEL METHOD OF ELECTING THE PRESIDENT.

Various amendments have been suggested to Mr. Wade's Constitutional amendment, rendering the President or Vice President ineligible for re-election. In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, proposed a substitute for the simple proposition of Senator Wade, in effect as follows: It provides that each State shall, on the first Monday of January, preceding the expiration of the current Presidential term, nominate to Congress one of its citizens for the office of President; the two Houses of Congress shall meet in November, and proceed to elect a President from the candidates so named, dropping the lowest candidate on each ballot, and the person elected shall not be elegible for re-election. Ordered to be printed.

ADMISSION OF COLORADO.

Mr. Chilcot, member of Congress elect from the State of Colorado, has arrived direct from Denver. He says the feeling there in favor of the passage of the bill for the admission of the State over the veto is strong, and that there is no doubt of the ratification of the fundamental condition of admission by the Legislature, and there will be a ready compliance with its requirements by the people; that emigration to the Territory is very large, and there can be no reasonable doubt that before the end of the year the population of Colorado will be over one hundred thousand. He further says that the rapid approach of two branches of the Pacific Railroad had infused new life into almost every branch of trade.

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE.

An appendix to the Diplomatic correspondence has been presented containing seven hundred octave pages of matter, in reference to the assassination of President Lincoln and the injuries to Mr. Seward.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

A detachment of one hundred and ten men has been ordered from the General Recruiting Office to Fort Leavenworth, for assignment to the Seventeenth Infantry; another, of one hundred and twenty-eight men, to Fort Snelling, for assignment to the Twenty-second Infantry.

REPORTS FAVORABLE AND OTHERWISE.

It is reported that the President has promised to accept the military bill, with Mr. Blaine's amendment.

It is reported that Horace Greeley has been offered the Postmaster Generalship.

FINANCIAL MEASURES.

The demand loan bill which passed the senate, will speedily be reported to the House by the Ways and Means Committee. The Committee will also be compelled, by instructions of the House, to report an anti-contraction bill, but will probably recommend its rejection.

TREATY WITH INDIANS.

Commissioner Bogy has just concluded a treaty with the Stockbridge Indians, by which they relinquish the land now occupied by them in Wisconsin. A portion of the tribe became citizens, and the remainder continue their organization. A treaty will be completed with the Sacs and Foxes to-day.

REGISTRY OF VOTERS.

A GOOD DEFENCE.

Thomas F. Bower, ex-Congressman from Maryland, has plead in court that the three notes of $1,000 each, on which he was sued, were for gambling debts, and has gained his case.

John C. Calhoun's old homestead in South Carolina, is to be sold at auction on the 4th of March.

[From the Tribune Correspondence.]

Thad. Stevens was unable to leave his house to-day on account of sickness brought on by fatigue resulting from his speech in the House yesterday. He fainted in his library this morning, and was carried to his bed, and has been unable to see visitors since. He is somewhat better this evening.

Several leading Republican members of Congress and others, among whom were Raymond, Bingham, Hubbell, Buckland, and Delano, held a protracted caucus last night in this city, for the purpose of ascertaining whether a compromise might not be effected between the President and Congress. There seems to be little doubt that the President is willing to agree upon a plan for the purpose of accommodating the views of a majority of Congress, provided they would meet him half way, but it appears there is nobody that can speak for the majority. Hence the difficulty in bringing about the proposed arrangement.

Mr. Morrill, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, being called home by the serious illness of his mother, his absence will seriously interfere with the progress of the tariff bill in the committee, as nearly all the members have left that important measure to his guidance. They will go on with it, however, with the view of getting it before the House as speedily as possible.

The vote in the Senate to-day showed that there is strength enough to pass the Niagara Ship Canal Bill, and it will be put on its passage this week.

The bill to prevent the further contraction of greenbacks does not stand any chance of passing this session.

[From the Herald Correspondence.]

The decision of the Court of Claims, at Washington, in the case of allowance for servants to officers of the army from the first of May, to the 3d of March, 1865, entitles each officer who served during that period to forty dollars extra for each servant employed, being the difference per month between eleven dollars and sixteen dollars, the amount which should have been paid.

[From the Times Correspondence.]

Mr. Sumner will offer one or more amendments to the Louisiana bill, which may give rise to debate. Mr. Fessenden will insist on incorporating the Blaine amendment into the House bill establishing military governments in the South, and there is a fair prospect of its adoption by the senate.

The Northern Pacific Railroad scheme has failed for the present. The Committee to whom it was referred, declined to act this session.

It is probable that the President, in case the Senate rejects the nomination of Mr. Bogy, will send in the name of General William Webb, of Wisconsin, as Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Beveridge, who brutally assaulted the correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer in the Capital last winter, has been sentenced by Judge Fisher to pay a fine of one hundred and fifty dollars. Beveridge pleaded guilty, and asked the Court to be lenient in the infliction of the penalty.

Action of the Merchants on the Subject of Bridging the Mississippi at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 15.—The following resolutions were offered on 'Change to-day, which were referred to a meeting to be held to-morrow, before which important matters will be brought affecting directly the interests of this city and State:

WHEREAS, The Union National Exchange has learned that a charter authorizing the building of a bridge from East St. Louis to St. Louis is now pending before the Legislature of the State of Illinois, which charter proposes to grant an exclusive privilege or monopoly to the corporation named therein, for a long series of years; and

WHEREAS, It is currently stated on the streets that those corporators who are now earnestly working to obtain said exclusive charter intend not to build a bridge, but to sell out their charter to the highest bidder; therefore

Resolved, That we earnestly and respectfully protest against the giving of a charter for an exclusive privilege of building a bridge from East St. Louis to St. Louis, to any man or set of men, as we believe it will be injurious to the interests, both of our own city and of East St. Louis.

Resolved further, That we think it right and proper that your honorable body should give as many charters as may be desired by respectable citizens for bridge building from East St. Louis to this city, putting in all such charters that the bridge thereby chartered shall be actually commenced in good faith within one year from the passage of such act, and shall be completed within five years thereafter.

FROM NEW YORK.

The Reported Landing of Fenians at Valentia—The Fact of Their Sailing from New York Attested—An Ingenious Smuggler Detected—Action of the Southern Relief Commission.

NEW YORK, February 15, 1867.

THE FENIAN NEWS.

The Fenian General Gleeson says: The vessels reported arrived in Ireland were dispatched from New York. Also, that Stephens is in Ireland at the head of three hundred officers all known to have left here.

DETENTION ON THE ERIE ROAD.

The mail train over the Erie Railroad, due at noon to-day, arrived late this evening, having been detained by a freshet on Chemung Flats.

The wall of a new building on Second street fell in to-day, and several workmen were badly injured.

A boy in the employ of Sherman & Edge, robbed the Custom House, to-day, of five hundred dollars.

AN ACUTE SMUGGLER.

DESTITUTION AT THE SOUTH.

Reports to the Southern Relief Commission say the destitution in South Carolina is appalling. Two thousand bushels of corn have been sent to Sumpter district.

River Telegrams.

[By Merchants' National Telegraph Company.]

OIL CITY, February 15.—Weather cloudy and warm. River about five feet and falling slowly. There is still a little ice running, but no more heavy ice is expected from above.

The Oil market is firmer to-day.

CHICAGO, February 15.—The Chicago and St. Louis bridge over the Kankakee at Wilmington, which was washed away yesterday morning, was one thousand feet long and the longest between here and St. Louis. Three hundred laborers are at work, and it is expected that the damage will soon be repaired. The rain continues, but up to this evening we hear of no damage to roads beyond that reported last night. The telegraph lines westward and southward are working badly in consequence of the storm.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 15.—The weather is cloudy. It has been raining for two days. The river rose two feet during the past twenty-four hours. Departures—Rob Roy, Leonidas, Mississippi and Henry Ames for New Orleans. The Henry Ames had 3,700 bales of cotton. The Leonidas and Mississippi had a big trip. Arrived—The Virginia, from Louisville; Columbia and Deer Lodge, from St. Louis. In port—Belle Memphis, Anna Wannuetta, Mary Irwin, Rose Hambleton, Natoma and Sam J. Hall.

LOUISVILLE, February 15.—The river rose six feet in the past twenty-four hours, and is now rising three and a half feet per hour. At Portland it rose twelve feet during the twenty-four hours ending at 7 this morning; rising this afternoon five inches per hour. Arrivals—Anglo Saxon, from Cincinnati; "N. Y." from Pittsburgh; Cora, from Memphis. Departed—Samuel Hill, for New Orleans; Anglo Saxon, for Arkansas River; "N. Y." for St. Louis; Liberty No. 2, for Memphis; Ida, for Cincinnati.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14.—Weather cloudy. Thermometer 72. Business retarded on the landing on account of mud along the streets leading through. Arrivals—Pauline Carrol, from St. Louis; Westmoreland, from Cincinnati; General Quitman, from Vicksburg. Departures—Mollie Able, for Saint Louis; General White and Norman for Louisville; General Quitman, for Vicksburg.

The Gas Explosion—Coroner's Inquest.

Coronor Clawson last evening commenced the investigation into the causes of the death of Samuel B. Barker, the child who was killed by the explosion of gas, at the house of its father, William Barker, jr., on Wednesday afternoon last. The particulars of the explosion we have already published. The jury empannelled were as follows:

Dr. W. B. Thorne, sworn—Was called at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, to attend the little boy whom I found suffering from concussion; Dr. Rankin came in and assisted me; we succeeded in restoring the child in a measure, and he appeared to rally until near eight o'clock, when I saw him last alive; came back afterwards and found him dead; think he died very suddenly, from the shock to his nervous system; it is very difficult to decide, without a post mortem, whether he died of concussion or internal hemorrhage; think it was the former; am perfectly satisfied that he died from the effects of the explosion.

Dr. D. N. Rankin, sworn.—In returning from dinner on Wednesday, saw a crowd about the factory; heard that the child had been hurt and needed medical attendance; Dr. Thorne was here when I arrived; the child was apparently dead; we used all the means usual in cases of asphyxia, and succeeded in restoring the child partially, so that in about an hour we considered him out of danger; considered the case one of concussion of the brain, which is often produced by severe shocks; the same effect, and even fatal effects, are frequently occasioned by cannon balls passing near a person; about nine o'clock Mr. Bradley came after me, telling me that the child was dying; came down as rapidly as possibly and found the child dead; the death was occasioned by a shock, and suppose the shock was that of the explosion at the house; that was certainly severe enough to produce the effects.

John Heidler, sworn.—Was working at the stone yard next to the house, on Wednesday afternoon; heard the explosion and ran out; heard a lady in the injured house exclaim, "oh God take the child!" two men were there but would not take the child; I took it and carried it in the yard; at that moment there was another explosion heavier than the first; the child was brought by some person into the office, and I ran back for the lady, but she had got out; the men were standing by the window when I took the child; it seemed to have blood in its mouth when I took it; this was about two o'clock; I thought the child was dead when I took it, but it commenced to breathe shortly; saw no bruises about the child; I think the explosion was caused by gas, for I smelled the gas strong.

James Logan, sworn.—Was across the street from the factory when the explosion occurred, and nearly opposite the house. Heard the report and thought it was a boiler; saw the frame of the house shaking and the dust coming out of the windows. Ran over, saying that Mr. Bradley's house had either been blown up or fallen in. Saw the child lying in the entry; Miss Bradley took it up and passed it out of the window to some person. I then went up stairs to see if there was any fire, but found none; afterwards I commenced clearing away the rubbish. have no doubt that the gas caused the explosion; have several times smelled gas coming apparently out of the yard.

Miss Ella Bradley, sworn.—My nephew and I were in the sitting-room before the explosion; I sat him down in the arm chair, and was leaving the room when the explosion occurred. From the position the child was in when I took him up, I think he must have been blown over the arm of the chair. I picked him up and passed him out of the window; remember nothing more. The chair was not broken, and the child lay beside it. The hearth was perfectly clean before the explosion, and no coals could have fallen through to the ground under it; have heard the family frequently speak of smelling gas about there. The child had been sick all day. The first explosion stunned me.

William Bradley, sworn.—I was in the third story of the mill at the time of the explosion; heard the explosion, and thought at first it was the steam; saw it was the house, and ran to the place; saw my sister inside; assisted her through the dining room to the yard, thinking she was in her full senses; went up stairs and saw my little nephew lying in the yard, apparently dead; ran down and brought him in to the office; when I first went into the house the floor was not very much torn up, heard that the gas was on in the cellar; found the meter all safe; turned the gas off the meter; had smelled the gas a day or two before the occurrence; did not hear the second explosion, but when I went in again the floors were all ripped up; had notified the Gas Company of the leak in the gas pipes some time previously; the clerk of the Gas Company said, on Wednesday, in my presence, that the man who put in the meter stated that there was a leak somewhere about it.

James Bradley, sworn.—The first I knew of the explosion was from a dray man, who told me that the mill boilers had burst; ran down, met a lady who told me that the gas in the house had exploded and that my nephew Sammy Barker was badly injured; found the house totally wrecked; went in through the kitchen; two or three explosions occurred while I was in there, but they were not severe. The explosions seemed to be preceded by a slight flash. Before the gas attachment was made to the house, my attention was called by Mr. Seville to the strong smell of gas in the cellar; applied to have the attachment made, and the company requested that Tate & Seville be requested to make the attachment. Mr. Seville remarked that he did not think it judicious to make the attachment until the gas company was notified; did not notify them; Mr. Seville made the attachment; before the attachment was made the Company's foreman called my attention to the strong smell of gas in the cellar; the service pipe in the street which formerly supplied the church, has never been turned off since the church burned down, some seven or eight years ago. The attachment in the house was made in January. We moved into the house February 7th.

J. C. Patterson, sworn.—Came to the house forty minutes after the explosion; saw the house pretty thoroughly demolished; a few minutes afterwards another explosion occurred; while I stayed there the explosions occurred at intervals of ten or fifteen minutes; the explosions took place inside the foundation wall; they seemed confined to a space of some ten feet; the space began to heat up very sensibly and steam began to rise; we threw water in and the explosions stopped; we excavated and found the stones very warm; after digging a little while the smell of gas became very strong.

William Dierdorf, sworn.—Am employed at Bradly's mill; at the time of the explosion was with Mr. Bradly, some distance away. The teamster came up and told us that the boilers had exploded in the mill. Came down and found the house wrecked; smelled the gas very strong in a crevice near the front foundation wall. Several other explosions occurred. They have been excavating for the leak; they found a small leak today in the service pipe. Yesterday they found a leak in the main pipe in the middle of the street, and when a lighted paper was applied, quite a heavy shock resulted. Had smelled the gas frequently before the explosion.

Jas. Logan, recalled.—Have smelled the gas frequently, apparently between the factory and the house; have spoke about it to persons who were with me.

At this point the inquest adjourned to be resumed on Monday evening.

Alleged Highway Robbery.

Yesterday officers Sarber and Lutz arrested Barny O'Donald, for larceny on a warrant issued by Alderman Donaldson, about the 1st of February. On the first Mr. S. N. McClarren made information charging the prisoner with the larceny of $69. It appears that one evening Mr. McClarran was standing in front of his office, on Water street when a party of half-drunken rowdies came a long, O'Donnel among the number. The latter staggered against the prosecutor, running his hand into his pocket at the same time. Mr. McC. did not discover his loss until after he had gone into the office, and it was then too late to follow him up. He made the necessary information, how ever and the officers succeeded in making the arrest, yesterday. The prisoner had a partial hearing yesterday and was held to bail for a further hearing on Tuesday next.

Rev. Wilson on Mixsell

I write you this note to inform you that we are pleased with the Mixsell Piano we purchased from you. In richness, fullness and sweetness of tone this instrument is not excelled by any other. When my advice is asked I say go to Mr. Kleber's and purchase a Mixsell Piano. Yours,
T. M. WILSON.

Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Ebensburg, Pa., is a gentleman of fine musical ear, and his preference for the Mixsell Pianos after a thorough trial of them, speaks volumes in their favor. At H. Kleber & Bro.'s, No. 124 Wood street, a fine stock of the Mixsell Pianos may constantly be found. Price a little over three hundred dollars.

A Mixed Case.—Mary Kohler, charged on oath of Mary Henche with surety of the peace, had a hearing before Alderman Strain yesterday, and was held to bail for Court. As Mrs. K. was leaving the office with her husband, they were both arrested on a capias issued by the Court, on a charge of slander preferred by the same prosecutrix. Both defendants were held for trial.

Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad—Meeting at Connellsville.

The citizens of Connellsville met Thursday evening, (February 14th,) at the Yough House, for the purpose of expressing their sentiments in regard to the restoration of the charter of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad.

The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:

President—Hon. P. McCormick.

Vice Presidents—General James C. Cummings, Samuel Freeman, J. Enos, George Nickel, R. A. McIlvaine, Aaron Bishop and Henry Walter.

Secretaries—J. T. McCormick and General R. T. Galloway.

On motion of Dr. Lindly, the Chair was authorized to appoint a Committee on Resolutions.

The following gentlemen were named: Dr. L. Lindly, Joseph Johnston, John Greenland, George Orth, H. D. Overholt, Major B. Pritchard, Josiah Kurtz, M. B. Stouffer and David Connell.

The Committee reported the following resolutions, which were ordered to be sent the Pittsburgh papers for publication, and a copy forwarded to the Speaker of the House of Representatives:

WHEREAS, The Act of the Legislature annulling the Charter of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Rail Road Company has been decided by the highest Courts of the State to be unconstitutional and void, and the act itself a gross violation of the rights of the people and a monstrous fraud upon the vested rights of the Company, and as it is universally believed that the passage of said act was procured by unjust and corrupt means; therefore

Resolved, That we as a people whose rights have been violated and whose interests have been deeply and unjustly injured by the passage of said act, do appeal to the present Legislature and demand a restoration of our rights by the prompt repeal of the unjust and fraudulent act.

Resolved, That full justice would require not only the repeal of the Act, but would also require that ample reparation should be made by the State for the great damage which the interests of the Company have sustained by reason of the fraud upon its vested rights which the State, through its Legislature, has committed.

Resolved, That we do not ask it as a favor, but we demand it as a perfect and undeniable right that the Act be repealed, and we will hold those members of the Legislature who refuse to vote for its repeal, to a strict accountability, both in public and in private, holding them up to the scorn and derision of all honest men, without regard to party.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the passage of the General Railroad Law lately read in place by Senator Bigham, and ask its passage as read.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings and resolutions of this meeting be forwarded to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, with a request that it be read before the House as an expression of the universal sentiment and feeling of the people of Western Pennsylvania, and the opinion of honest and impartial men everywhere.

National Foundry and Pipe Works.

The manufacture of even, smooth and serviceable metal pipes for gas, water and other purposes has long been successfully monopolized by Eastern foundries, and even here in this the rightly called "Iron City" we have had to import foreign made pipes. But a new era has dawned. We may be slow in following the example and enterprise of the East, but when we arrive at the point of competition, we go into the rivalry with a double assurance of success and a certainty of outstripping competitors. In the Ninth ward there has sprung up an immense foundry which is destined ere long to relieve the East entirely of its traffic in metal pipes, and to prove the great source from whence the great Northwest and South will obtain in the future all their supplies of articles in this particular line. We refer to the National Foundry and Pipe Works of Wm. Smith, corner of Carroll and Smallman streets.

The casting of these pipes is an operation intensely interesting to the curious, and with the exception of cannon making is the most enticing sight to be found amongst our iron mills and foundries. The moulds, each twelve feet long, are placed in a vertical position, and sunk in pits, perhaps twenty or thirty occupying a single pit, and the red hot, glaring metal is poured in from small openings at the top of the moulds and level with the platforms. The sand used in the mould is baked hard to the required size, and when the casting is completed, is withdrawn easily, and leaves the interior of the pipe as smooth as polished marble, with no flaw or irregular surface, while the outer portion is equally perfect. Orders for the pipes manufactured by Mr. Smith have been received already from Milwaukee, St. Louis and Cleveland, and so soon as their durability and superiority is properly understood and appreciated, no other pipes will be as generally used throughout the country.

If the foundry could be extended several hundred more mechanics would be employed, but as the ruling in the Spruce alley vacation checks any extension of the present foundry, Mr. Smith will either be compelled to abandon that ward, or content himself with limited facilities for the prosecution of his rapidly increasing business. We invite the attention of water companies, gas companies and neighboring city authorities to the superiority of the pipes manufactured in this city by Mr. Smith. The National foundry is an institution in which we Pittsburghers should feel equally as much pride in the "piping days of peace," as we do in the Fort Pitt cannon foundry in the days of war.

Miracles.

The age of miracles would seem reinstated in the wonderful doings of the Indian Herb Doctor, of No. 194 Liberty street, whose recent visit to this city is attended by so many and such incredulous cures of bed-ridden and crippled patients. It is well known to hundreds in this community that in a short time he has totally removed the infirmities of months and years. We have known of his causing the limping cripple to lay down his crutches, without which locomotion was impossible, and give him full powers of easy movement. The dumb have been enabled to talk, and the helpless invalid restored at once to health and happiness.

HABITUAL COSTIVENESS.—I have been afflicted with costiveness and dyspepsia for a long time. I could find no doctor that understood my complaint or could cure me, until I applied to the Indian Herb Doctor.
GEORGE RYAN,
Boot and shoemaker, in the employ of Wm. Perry, Wood street.

SCROFULA.—To the afflicted who are seeking relief from Scrofula, try the Indian Herb Doctor, at 194 Liberty street, who has cured me.
D. F. CAMPBELL,
Mate of the Steamboat Roberts.

GENERAL DEBILITY AND DISEASE OF THE BLOOD CURED.—I am now enjoying perfect health. After using the Indian Herb Doctor's medicine, I gained eleven pounds in three weeks.
DAWSON HOLMES,
No. 81 Center avenue.

Another Outrage Attempted—Effort to Rob John Engler, Jr.

At about two o'clock yesterday morning, as Mr. John Engler, Jr., the renowned skater, was passing along Liberty street on his way to his hotel, he was met, when near the Irwin House, by two men, who stopped him and requested him to give them some tickets for the benefit last night. He replied that he had none with him, when they closed nearer to him and commenced demonstrations of a nature suggestive of highway robbery. Mr. Engler walked away from them, but they followed, still evidently bent on mischief. They came close to him again, when he drew his revolver and turned upon them. They thereupon changed front and retreated rapidly, leaving Mr. Engler still in possession of his magnificent Pittsburgh medal, which was evidently the object of their efforts.

Mortuary Report.

Dr. A. G. McCandless, Physician to the Board of Health, reports twenty-two as the total number of deaths for the week ending February 16th. Of the deceased sixteen were males and six were females; all were white. The diseases producing death were as follows:

Accident, 1; Unknown, 2; Congestion of Brain, 1; Suppuration of Right Lung, 1; Pneumonia, 2; Inflamation of Brain, 4; Typhoid Fever, 2; Remittant Fever, 1; Still Born, 2; Spasms, 1; Unknown, 1; Catarrh Fever, 2; Membranous Croup, 1; Bronchitis, 1.

Of the above there were: Under one year, 8; from one to two years, 5; from two to five years, 2; from thirty to forty years, 2; from forty to fifty years, 1; from fifty to sixty years, 1; from sixty to seventy years, 2.

City Poor Officers.

The Board of Guardians of the Poor held a meeting recently, when the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President—William Douglas; Secretary and Agent—George Fortune; Treasurer—William K. Hart; Superintendent of Alms House and City Farm—William S. Bullock; Superintendent of Insane Department of Alms House—Thomas McElroy; Physician to Alms House—Dr. Isaiah Ward; Physician to City Farm—Dr. A. C. Murdoch; Chaplain of Alms House—Rev. John Wilkinson; Matron—Mrs. Eliza McKelvey. The other members of the Board are as follows: David Fitzsimmons, David Hutchinson, James T. Kincaid, James Little, Dr. T. W. Shaw, Samuel McKee, David F. McKee, Jas. Robb, John W. Taylor and Henry Hays.

Confidential Again.

Yesterday morning early, a man who refused to give his name, but who stated that he was from Cresson, came to the Mayor's office and stated that he had been swindled out of $200 by sharpers at the Irwin House, on Liberty street, near Grant. He stated that he was sitting in the Union Depot, on Thursday night, waiting for the train to depart, when a "nice spoken" man came up and got into conversation with him. In the course of the conversation, the stranger ascertained what train the other man was going to take, and said that he had a friend at the Irwin House who was going to travel by the same train, would be a splendid traveling companion, etc., etc. Come right over to the Irwin House and he would introduce the two travelers; they would all take a drink and have a good time. The Cressonier went. They found the traveller busily engaged with another man throwing dice. He would be at liberty as soon as he had finished that game. The Cresson man's first friend became deeply interested and commenced betting on the dice. Would his depot friend lend him fifty dollars—just for a few moments? He would pay it as soon as the game was over and he had time to go for his money. The cash was lent, and so on up to two hundred dollars, and all lost. Then the borrower and the proposed travelling companion retired to get the money and refund to the victim. They did not return, and the victim was not re-imbursed. He could not give the names of his deceivers, nor could he identify any of the money "borrowed" from him, so there seems to be no help for him. If there is no law by which the haunts of these thieves and blacklegs can be broken up, without waiting for the unwinding of so much red tape as entangles the executors of the law, worse than the criminals, the enactments should be speedily changed. There is need of some action which will make it impossible for thieves and gamblers to publicly congregate and defy the officers.

Missionary Anniversary.

The Liberty street Methodist Episcopal Church has set apart to-morrow for missionary purposes. The pastor, Rev. S. F. Jones, A. M., will deliver a sermon at the morning hour, on the subject of Missions. In the afternoon (2½ o'clock) the Sabbath School will hold its anniversary. From the character of the preparations for that occasion we look for a season of much interest. Rev. S. F. Scovel, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and Rev. W. B. Watkins, A. M., pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, are expected to make addresses. At night suitable services will be held, commencing at seven o'clock. This congregation enjoys the reputation of giving liberally towards the support of the missionary cause. Persons will do well who can make it convenient to attend one or all these services.

Coal and Where to Purchase.

Our city readers will be pleased to know that Messrs. Louis Kauffmann and R. A. Schnabel have, under the firm of Kauffmann & Co., taken possession of the popular Union Coal Yards, in the Ninth ward. The coal supplied is of the very best quality for family purposes, and is delivered promptly by careful drivers at the shortest notice. The office is at the corner of Harrison and Penn streets, and the yard is on the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, near Carson street, in the Ninth Ward. Superior nut coal and slack is always on hand and promptly delivered to order. We commend this firm to the patronage of our readers.

Organ Sixteen Years in Use.

I most willingly bear testimony to the excellence of the Carhart & Needham instruments (the Parlor Organs and Melodeons,) as I have had one in constant use for the past sixteen years; and in that time I have not had a reed changed or repaired, and the tone is as perfect, and I think, as pleasing as at first.
WILLIAM DIGBY.

The Carhart & Needham Parlor Organs can be found in splendid variety, at H. Kleber & Bros., 122 Wood street, who are the exclusive agents.

The River Again.—At about six o'clock on Thursday evening, the ice from the Oil Creek gorge began to make its appearance here in the Allegheny, and before nine o'clock very heavy ice was running out and the river rising very rapidly. It continued to rise all day yesterday, with very thick, heavy ice running out, and there were strong fears of a flood in Allegheny. At nine o'clock the pier marks showed twenty-three feet, and after that time commenced slowly falling. Several flats, rafts, &c., and portions of a wooden bridge floated down with the ice, but we heard of no serious occurrences.

At about midnight on Thursday night, the ice broke in the Youghiogheny, and the Monongahela rose rapidly for a time. We learned of no serious damage done.

More Old Butter.—A large batch of unmarketable butter was confiscated yesterday in the Pittsburgh Market House. People will eventually find out that it is more profitable as well as more decent to sell their butter when it is fit for use, even though there may be a prospect of rising prices, than to wait until it becomes so old that it cannot be sold except for cart grease.

Committed.—Jas. Kerr, the man who stole the money bag from the toll house at Hilldale Cemetery on Thursday, had a hearing before Mayor Morrison yesterday, and was committed to jail for trial. He acknowledges the theft, but says he was drunk. Kerr is very respectably connected, but seems to be a constitutional thief.

Universalist Fair and Festival—Will be continued four days next week, ending Thursday, February 21st, the eve of the anniversary of Washington's birthday. Distribution of articles and promenade every night. Grand Finale on Thursday evening. Admission 25 cents.

Confiscated.—Mr. Dallas, clerk of the Allegheny Markets, yesterday confiscated a large quantity of butter exposed for sale in the market by some of the dealers. It was sent to the Poor Farm as being too old to be of any use.

A Railroad Row.—Michael Herwin made information before Alderman Taylor, charging Robert Story and Peter McCauley with assault and battery. The parties are railroad men, and the alleged attack occurred at the depot.

Hearing Deferred.—The hearing in the case of William Woods, which was to have taken place yesterday, before Mayor Morrison, has been deferred until to-day, in order that the witnesses for the prosecution may be present.

Will Close.—We are informed that all banks in the city will close on the twenty-second instant, in honor of George Washington's birth-day.

Glass Manufacturers. Glass Blowers, order your shirts made at Murdock & Putnam's, 72 Fifth street.

Paine & Co's Argentine.—For instantly plating all articles of copper, brass or German silver, with pure silver, where worn off, and for cleansing and polishing silver or silver-plated ware. Warranted to contain no quicksilver or acid, or any injurious article. For sale by J. Sample, Allegheny, and all druggists. de18:tf

The present strength of the volunteer forces in Canada is 63,500 men, including twenty-two troops of cavalry and eight batteries of artillery. The provincial gunboats, now in winter quarters, are to be placed in an immediate state of efficiency for service on the lakes.

Alfred Fols, of Limerick, near Portland Maine, was robbed by highwaymen, on Thursday night, of $280, and also severely beaten.

MARRIED.

McCALLAM—GILLESPIE—On Thursday evening, February 14th, at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 98 Penn street, by the Rev. S. G. Fuller, Capt. A. C. McCALLAM, Jr., to Miss SADIE E. GILLESPIE.

We congratulate our young friend, the Captain, upon his advent into a new sphere of life, and trust that he and his happy bride may float together down life's current without encountering a rock of woe or ripple of sorrow. We wish them much happiness.

DIED.

MIERSCH—On Friday morning, February 15th, 1867, at 3 o'clock, after a short illness, Mr. F. A. MIERSCH, Jr., aged 41 years and 3 months.

The funeral will take place on SUNDAY, the 15th inst., at 2 o'clock, from his late residence, No. 43 St. Clair street. The friends of the family and members of Battery C, First Battalion Pennsylvania Volunteer Artillery, are respectfully invited to attend.

SOUTHERN DESTITUTION.

It was inevitable that the inhabitants of lands desolated by war, as many portions of the Southern States were, should feel the pressure of sore want. As a matter of fact the conflict of arms had scarcely ceased when it was made apparent that many thousands of the population of the two Carolinas, of Georgia and of Alabama, whites as well as blacks, were in greatly straightened circumstances, even in destitution of the commonest necessities of life. The Freedmen's Bureau was devised, not wholly, but in large part, to meet this lamentable condition of affairs. It was possible by a justifiable stretch of war power to minister to the relief of the sufferers; whereas, on the civil side, it was difficult to see how the requisite funds could be taken from the Treasury. But a loud clamor was raised against the Bureau, on the pretext that it was supporting lazy blacks in idleness, who had better be driven to work. In vain was it urged and demonstrated that many more whites than blacks had the charity of the Government extended to them in this form. The fact that blacks were relieved of hunger, had their nakedness clothed, and were protected in their rights against aggressions by their former masters, was not to be forgiven. The clamor became so persistent, and dealt so largely in defamation, that the granting of supplies was pretty much stopped.

But the suffering is not at an end. There are the best reasons for believing that in the four States named above the gaunt wolf stands at the door of many houses occupied by white people, not a few of whom previously to the war were in positions of comfort, if not of affluence. Appeals in behalf of these people have been made to citizens of the Northern States, and some moneys, considerable in themselves, but quite inadequate to the object in view, have been raised. It is earnestly to be hoped that more will be forthcoming. No matter what course these famishing men and women took touching the rebellion, they are not only our fellow creatures, but our fellow citizens. Their children and our children are destined by Providence to hold this great country in common, and eventually to control the march of civilization and Religion here. Antipathies enough are already planted between them. It is the part of wisdom to make it manifest that whatever political differences have existed or may exist there are obligations of humanity which are stronger still, and will not be disregarded.

It is not a little strange, however, that some journals that were most savage in their assaults upon the Bureau, and did most to hinder its action in ameliorating Southern suffering, are most indignant at the parsimony with which the North has responded to the appeals made to it in behalf of the South. It is offensively charged that the smallness of the contributions is owing to the hatred of the South inspired by the inculcations of the Radical. We dislike to consider a case of this sort under such an aspect; but since no alternative is left we must do the best we can.

These democratic organs can hardly mean to imply that their own followers have been so embittered towards the South by the discourses of republican journals that they have no bowels of compassion left for their Southern brethren? The New York World ought to reflect that its own city, with its vast democratic majority, cannot well expect to be excused on so frail a plea. If the Republicans are remiss in this matter there is so much the more occasion for the Democrats to come up to the full measure of their duty. Surely it will not do to entertain the suspicion that they hold back because they are imbued with hatred of the South. Yet upon any other hypothesis we do not see how an excuse can be made for them which will not cover the delinquincies of their neighbors. If the Democrats would only set an example in this particular of the noble charity they commenced, they would accomplish a certain amount of positive good, and might do as much more indirectly by thus stirring up the Radicals to imitate their liberality.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

A few days ago we stated the fact that Italy had abolished the death penalty. This calls up the fact that most of the European nations are leading the States of the American Union in ameliorations of the death penalty. In France, Prussia, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Sweden, and Holland, not more than one-third of the convictions for murder have, for quite a number of years past, been followed by executions. In Portugal and Switzerland no executions have been allowed for a long period. Not that the offenders are absolutely pardoned, but the commutations are resorted to in the great majority of instances. Nor do we hear of special impediments being known in the way of access to those in whose hands the mercy of nations is lodged by the laws.

In England, between 1822 and 1832, there were 1,280 people condemned to death, of whom only 59 were executed. Between 1852 and 1862 the condemnations fell to 60, of whom only 11 were hanged.

So far there is almost unbroken uniformity in the testimony of good effects resulting from lenity; and it is fair to presume that the day is not distant when the death penalty will be disused throughout Europe, if not formally abrogated.

Awkward Mechanical Blunder.—In the absence of our foreman on Thursday night, an awkward mechanical blunder was made in the "making up" of our second page, whereby the interesting report of the Common Ground Improvement Committee, was disjointed and sadly left out of place. We did not discover the grave blunder till it was too late to have been remedied. Our readers, however, can make sense of the report by separating it from the bill proposed for the action of the Legislature. Inasmuch as this was of great interest to our Allegheny subscribers, and indeed, to our readers in both cities, we sincerely regret that through our fault, the very able, sensible and comprehensive report of the Committee was made somewhat unintelligible.

To Capitalists.—State Treasurer Kemble's advertisement for proposals for a loan of twenty-three millions of dollars for the redemption of over-due bonds of the Commonwealth, appears in another column. This is a rare opportunity for investment, and part of it should be speedily taken by our capitalists.

The hospitalities of Washington have been voted by the City Councils to the great philanthropist, George Peabody.

The "immortal J. N. Free" is no more. His mission on earth as a strange and peculiar monomaniac was brought to a close ere his great dream of reconstruction was half realized. He will be missed in the editorial sanctums from Maine to Georgia, for he was at home in all during his perambulating tours for the adjustment of our national difficulties.

The Sorghum Growers' Convention, which recently assembled in Baltimore, was largely attended by the agriculturalists of Maryland. It is quite probable that a new impetus will be given to the raising of this cane during the present year in that State.

A fashionable lady of New York recently presented her husband with triplets. We hope this fashion will not become general in consequence.

No treaty has yet been concluded between the Indian delegation from Kansas, now in Washington, and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The Typhoid Fever rages to a fearful extent in the Baltimore Jail.

GENERAL NEWS.

—A man in St. Louis accidentally swallowed a glass eye.

—The total gold yield of Nevada last year was $15,821 389.

—California has a "snow-shoe express" over the mountains.

—Sharon is to have a glass factory, at a cost of forty thousand dollars.

—The Southern cities are crying for oysters, which they cannot get.

—Additional discoveries of gold and silver are reported in Minnesota.

—The Mississippi papers disapprove a National Democratic Convention.

—German is just now the fashionable thing to speak and to dance in Paris.

—An abandoned well, at Pithole, is breaking out again, and flowing copiously.

—The Rev. Mr. McFarland is the title of a Scotch lady, who is preaching in London.

—Napoleon has sent a copy of his Life of Cæsar to the Ambrosian Library, at Milan.

The United States has a greater length of railways than all other countries together.

—There are nearly seven thousand five hundred lager beer breweries in Prussia.

—General Lee is not writing a "History of the Northern Army of Virginia," as reported.

—An exchange suggests that while we take care of the Indians, they take hair of the white people.

—Karl Simrock has made a German translation of Shakspeare's poems, which is said to be masterly.

—The Union railway depot at Chicago is just completed, at a cost of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

—It is estimated that about one hundred million feet of logs will be cut on the Upper Mississippi this winter.

—Basil Duke has just published a history of Morgan's cavalry, and all rebeldom is reading it. At least that portion of rebeldom that can read.

—The Queen sent $100 to a man named Percy, 110 years of age, and the "oldest man in England." That ancient cove is evidently one of the Percy Relics.

—General Dix's private soirees are already spoken of, in Paris, as witnessing "the most charming re-union of America's finest representatives every Saturday evening."

—It appears that during January there were in the United States thirty large fires, at each of which the loss was over $20,000. The aggregate losses by these fires amounted to $4,048,000.

—Yale College is now suffering from a violent attack of measles, and is trying to out-rival a Boston school, which has the mumps. Couldn't the University of Pennsylvania get up an opposition in the small pox line?

—The largest anchor in the world has been completed for the Great Eastern at Wolverhampton. Its weight is eight tons, exclusive of the stock; length of the shank, twenty feet six inches; length of wood stock, nineteen feet six inches; tread of arms, seven feet four inches.

—We observe from the Charleston papers that that city has got its new steam line to Liverpool in successful operation, and that the steamer Pioneer was to have sailed on Saturday last. Another steamship line is about to be established between New York and Havre, on which four first-class steamers will sail.

—The Neapolitan journals announce that the great "Cosenza case" will soon come before the courts. This was a Bourbonist conspiracy discovered in 1863. Seven hundred persons were arrested, fifty-seven cases of whom are now about to be tried. They have already been three years in prison.

—Great destitution exists throughout Italy. In Venice thirty thousand persons subsist on public charity. In Sardinia the people are compelled to live, like beasts, on roots and herbs. Even the government journals of Turin and Florence say that "hunger is the order of the day," and call upon the ministry to do something that will prevent famine.

—The New Orleans Times says that Dr. A. Gourrier, of Iberville parish, raised last year silk of the best quality. A dozen of the cocoons have been sent to the Paris Exposition; also a number of skeins of sewing silk—some pure white, others dyed a glossy black. The silk of which they are made was raised from eggs which had been in the Doctor's possession for forty years.

—A great many people are said to be planting the Chinese sugar cane in Texas this year. One gentleman living a few miles from San Antonio planted half an acre with it last year, and made from its yield thirty gallons of molasses, which he sold at a dollar a gallon, and four hundred gallons of vinegar, from which he realized fifty cents a gallon. He also secured from the half acre in question over a ton of good fodder, and many bushels of seed, valuable for feeding stock.

—A late Confederate officer writes to the Richmond Examiner that a man recently detailed to him a scheme on foot to get up a gift enterprise, ostensibly for the Southern Orphan Association, but in reality to benefit alone the speculators. The man came from Baltimore, and letters have been written there exposing the scheme. It is said that "bogus" agents of "memorial associations," and exhibitors of shows for aid for cemetery societies, &c., in the South, are going about the country. The public should be on their guard against imposters.

—There are two young Japanese in a school at Provincetown, New Jersey, who came from the province of Higo, near Nagasaki. The six who were studying at Munson, Massachusetts, came from the province of Satsuma, which has been the most advanced part of Japan ever since Father Xavier's day. There is one at Andover, Massachusetts, from Yeddo; one en route to enter Yale College, via. California, and there are six in New York who were sent to study naval architecture and gunnery in behalf of a future Japanese steam navy.

—De Tocqueville, in his work on America, gives this forcible sketch: "A newspaper can drop the same thought into a thousand minds at the same moment. A newspaper is an adviser who does not require to be sought, but comes to you briefly every day of common weal, without distracting your private affairs. Newspapers, therefore, become more necessary in proportion as men become more equal and individuals more to be feared. To suppose that they only serve to protect freedom would be to diminish their importance; they maintain civilization."

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The remaining portion of the Table Rock at Niagara Falls, fell on Tuesday. Fortunately, it being at this season of the year, no one was on it.

HABITUAL CONSTIPATION.—HOW TO EFFECT A CERTAIN AND PERMANENT CURE.—Some occupations of life predispose to Costiveness, especially those which allow but little exercise. Persons who contract this unfortunate habit of body, under such circumstances, might possibly be relieved by changing their sedentary employments for others of a more active kind; but this is by no means certain. Habitual constipation is a very obstinate disorder. All the ordinary so-called remedies invariably aggravate it. Nothing can be more injurious than the continued use of strong aperients. They at first irritate, and finally almost paralyze the bowels—rendering them so torpid that enormous doses of cathartic medicines have no effect upon them. A mild aperient, combined with a gentle stimulant, is the true remedy; and a combination of the happiest proportion of these ingredients, is found in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This famous Stomachic invigorates the whole intestinal canal while quietly removing from its convolutions all impediments to a free passage through them. No mere purgative has this double operation. No ordinary stimulant effects the desired object. Cases of Consumption abandoned as hopeless by distinguished medical men have been cured in a few weeks by the Bitters. To those who have tried all the medicines of the dispensary in vain, we say try this irresistible stimulant and aperient. There is no sufficient reason why Constipation should be the consequence of sedentary habits. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, by supplying the vigor which would otherwise be derived from exercise, will, in all cases enable the system to perform its excretory functions regularly and healthfully.

PENNSYLVANIA

STATE LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF

$23,000,000.

AN ACT

To Create a Loan

FOR THE REDEMPTION OF

The Over-Due Bonds of the Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, The bonds of the Commonwealth, and certain certificates of indebtedness, amounting to twenty-three millions of dollars, have been over due and unpaid for some time past;

And Whereas, It is desirable that the same should be paid, and withdrawn from the market: therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer be, and are hereby, authorized and empowered to borrow, on the faith of the Commonwealth, in such amounts and with such notice, (not less than forty days) as they may deem most expedient for the interests of the State, twenty-three millions of dollars, and issue certificates of loan or bonds of the Commonwealth for the same, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first of February and first of August, in the City of Philadelphia, which certificates of loan or bonds shall not be subject to any taxation whatever, for State, municipal or local purposes, and shall be payable as follows, namely: Five millions of dollars payable at any time after five years and within ten years: eight millions of dollars, payable at any time after ten years and within fifteen years, and ten millions of dollars at any time after fifteen years and within twenty-five years: and shall be signed by the Governor and State Treasurer, and countersigned by the Auditor General and registered in the books of the Auditor General, and to be transferable on the books of the Commonwealth, at the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; the proceeds of the whole of which loan, including premiums, et cetera, received on the same, shall be applied to the payment of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 2. The bids for the said loan shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and awarded to the highest bidder: Provided, That no certificate hereby authorized to be issued, shall be negotiated for less than its par value.

SEC. 3. The bonds of the State and certificates of indebtedness, now over due, shall be receivable in payment of the said loan, under such regulations as the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer may prescribe; and every bidder for the loan, now authorized to be issued, shall state in his bid whether the same is payable in cash or in the bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 4. That all trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, treasurers, committees, or other persons, holding in a fiduciary capacity, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the State or moneys, are hereby authorized to bid for the loan hereby authorized to be issued, and to surrender the bonds or certificates of loan held by them at the time of making such bid, and to receive the bonds authorized to be issued by this act.

SEC. 5. Any person or persons standing in the fiduciary capacity stated in the fourth section of this act, who may desire to invest money in their hands for the benefit of the trust, may, without any order of court, invest the same in the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, at a rate of premium not exceeding twenty per centum.

SEC. 6. That from and after the passage of this act, all the bonds of this Commonwealth shall be paid off in the order of their maturity.

SEC. 7. That all loans of this Commonwealth, not yet due, shall be exempt from State, municipal or local taxation, after the interest due February first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall have been paid.

SEC. 8. That all existing laws, or portions thereof, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
L. W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

JOHN W. GEARY.

In accordance with the provision of the above act of Assembly, sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Treasurer, in the city of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, until 12 o'clock, M., of the 1st day of April, A. D., 1867, to be endorsed as follows: "Proposals for Pennsylvania State Loan," Treasury Department, Harrisburg, Penn'a, U. S. A.

Bids will be received for $5,000,000, reimbursable in Five years and payable in Ten years; $8,000,000 reimbursable in Ten years and payable in Fifteen years; and $10,000,000 reimbursable in Fifteen Years and payable in Twenty-Five years. The rate of interest to be either 5 or 6 per cent. per annum, which must be explicitly stated in the bid, and the bids most advantageous to the State will be accepted. No bid for less than par will be considered. The bonds will be issued in sums of $50, and such higher sums as desired by the loaners, to be free from State, local and municipal taxes.

The over due bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be received at par in payment of this loan, but bidders must state whether they intend to pay in cash or in the over due loans aforesaid.

No distinction will be made between bidders paying in cash or over-due loans.

JOHN W. GEARY,
Governor of Pennsylvania.
JOHN F. HARTRANFT,
Auditor General.
W. H. KEMBLE,
State Treasurer.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Arm! Arm! To the Rescue!—Call for State Temperance Convention.

Intemperance is running away with the nation. It is estimated that sixty thousand die annually, one hundred thousand go to prison, one hundred thousand to the almshouse, five hundred murders and four hundred suicides are committed every year, through this fell appetite for strong drink. What a fearful record of crime and death! What untold misery, disorder and discord, woe and weeping, attendant upon such a record!

Earth has no ambition that is not engulphed by it, nor hope that is not blasted; no tie that is not broken; no sanctuary that is not invaded; no friend, kinsman, brother, wife or child that is not forgotten; and no fibre of human agony which is not wrung. God has created no mind that can safely challenge combat with the appetite.

How would he be esteemed a benefactor who would deliver a sinking nation from famine, pestilence, or the sword! But here is an evil that surpasses either, in the comprehensiveness of its devastations—destroys more lives, produces more misery, consumes more substance, and ruins soul and body—an evil that is constantly at work while they are but occasional visitors; and instead of wearing itself out as they do, or growing weak with age, this giant of Intemperance out grows the stronger and more active, spreading everywhere in his track, wounds and tears, death and perdition.

To suppress such an evil must be the highest philanthropy. If Peter the Hermit was fired with indignation because of the desecrations which the infidel had brought upon Jerusalem, and marshaled and led on a mighty host for the rescue of the Holy land, should not we arm for the rescue, because of the desolations wrought, by this greatest foe of humanity! Every bone of the mountain pile of human skeletons around the fountains of King Alchohol calls to the living, Arm! Arm! for the rescue!

And to devise measures for the dethronement of this demon monster, to drive away the destroyer, shut down the flood-gates, and remove from our surviving kindred and fellow countrymen the sources of temptation, we, the undersigned, hereby call upon all friends of Temperance, throughout the State, to meet in Convention in the Court House, at Harrisburg, on Tuesday, the 26th day of February, 1867, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

"Jim B. Wise."

EDITORS OF THE GAZETTE:—A Literary Society meets once a week in McMinns' school house, in Findley township, this county. Old and young are wont to attend. Recently a stranger, in the person of a colored boy, late a slave in Virginia, and who passed through the wars, was brought into the neighborhood by an enterprising and Radical farmer, who put the boy to work. Jim (for that was his name) thought all work and no play would make him a dull boy, and he asked leave to go to society with the white folks. He went, and being a good humored colored boy he was invited to tell his "experience" in his own way, after the manner of a true disciple of Wesley. Jim made his speech; told his simple story of suffering and cruelty in such a manner that every true man felt more keenly the wrong that had been done to his race. Jim told them that he had no name but Jim until after the war, when an agent of the Bureau came round and asked him his name, and being told "Jim," the agent asked his other name when he said he had none, "then I name you Jim Be wise," said the agent, and thenceforth he has been known by that name. Jim makes peculiar speeches, he is theatrical and acts out slavery, and so hideous does he make it appear, that the democracy, which in this township is still unterrified, is beginning in reality to be terrified. But Jim takes away from the township some of their majority; Jim gives the howl of the negro under the lash, and when the hounds catch him and the poor pitiful apologists of rebellion are threatening that Jim shall not speak. So far has this been carried, that in one or two instances he has been subjected to violence, not because he is impudent, but because he is doing damage to the cause so dear to the aiders and abettors of treason.

It is but proper to say that so long as Jim behaves himself, he will be permitted to speak when invited and he never intrudes himself; but on the contrary is always permitted by his friends to say what he has to say. I shall advise you of Jim's speeches if he makes any more. Yours, RAD.

The Shooting Match.

The preparations for the shooting match between John Porter, of Washington, and Joseph V. Kerr, of Pittsburgh, are going forward, and the match will come off on Saturday, of next week, in Washington. Each party puts up $500, in addition to which Porter puts up $40 for Kerr's expenses. The forfeit is $50. Porter is to find pigeons for Kerr, and Kerr for Porter. The number to be shot at by each is twenty-one. They are to be shot out of a ground trap—one-half from Porter's trap, and one-half from Kerr's trap. The pigeons are to raise twenty-one yards before being shot at, and to fall within a boundary of eighty yards from the trap, the parties firing to stand on the circle. One and a half ounce shot are to be used.

Burglary.—On Tuesday morning the carpenter shop attached to Lippencott's shovel factory, in the Eighth ward, was entered by thieves, and a number of carpenter's tools carried off. The thieves effected an entrance into the shop by bursting open the front door. The several tool chests, belonging to the carpenters engaged at the mill, were ransacked, and saws, planes, hatchets, braces and bits, chisels, and a number of other carpenters' tools were stolen. No trace of the thieves.

A Horrible Crime.—The Washington Review of this week says:—On Monday night last a young man named McHenry Moore, aged between eighteen and twenty years, was committed to jail on the horrible charge of having seduced his own sister, named Mary Jane Moore, aged about fifteen years. The child was, we learn, born on Sunday night. The parties reside, we understand, in Cecil township. The accused was committed to jail by Justice James Moore, of Canonsburgh.

Money Lost.—On Thursday evening Mrs. Rafferty, while attending Macallister's entertainment at Masonic Hall, lost her pocket book containing between seven and eight dollars. She thinks her pocket was picked, but is not positive.

Prisoners Under Sentence of Death.

In the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, Mr. Wallace offered a resolution, requesting the Governor to inform the Senate how many persons were in the prisons of this Commonwealth under sentence of death up to January 15th, 1867, with all necessary facts as to their date of sentence, place of confinement, &c. The resolution was agreed to. This inquiry has probably been made with a view to some intelligent legislation upon the subject of a serious evil that Governor Curtin dwelt upon at some length in his last annual message. Almost, if not every Governor who has been elected for a number of years past, has had a legacy of convicted, but unhung criminals, left him by his immediate predecessor.

Presbyterian Centennial Convention—Adjournment.

The Presbyterian Centennial Convention closed its sessions on Thursday evening. During the afternoon the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this convention hails with gratitude the efforts towards a union among the different branches of the great Presbyterian family; that it will cherish a spirit of mutual sympathy and love, whereby we may co-operate in the work of the Lord; and that we entertain the hope that we, who are one body in Christ, may in due time, become organically one.

A Neighborly Quarrel.—Yesterday morning Constable Bolster, of Reserve township, arrested a man named James Logan, on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by a neighbor. A quarrel about some trifling matter and recourse to blows resulted in the discomfiture of the prosecutor, who appealed to the law. The parties were before Justice Arent, but the case was settled, the defendant paying the costs.

Tender Off.—Engine No. 5, on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, while backing down to their yards yesterday morning, the tender struck the end of an open flat car, which was on a siding. The tender was thrown from the track and the trucks considerably damaged. Being on the main track, the mail train, which should have departed at seven A. M., was delayed.

The Arab.—We learn that the tow-boat Arab, which was sunk at the mouth of the Youghiogheny, above McKeesport, having a hole broken in her hull by the floating ice, has been raised by means of chains and floats.

Another Slip.—We learn that on Thursday morning another rock slid from the cliff on the Connellsville Railroad, at Everson's Pennsylvania Forge. Workmen were immediately set to work to remove the obstruction. Several trains were detained.

Rebuilt.—The Commissioners of Franklin county, Pa., have erected a fine Court House in Chambersburg, at a cost of $53,026 12. Chambersburg is being rapidly rebuilt, and will be greatly improved by the great misfortune.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, FREE OF CHARGE. Please enclose a post-paid envelope addressed to yourself.

FOR SALE,

37 ACRES OF LAND

IN SCOTT TOWNSHIP, on the old Washington Pike, Six Miles out from the City of Pittsburgh. Improvements, a LARGE FRAME HOUSE, (old but in the best of order) containing SEVEN ROOMS, with a very Dry Cellar six feet deep, walled up with stone. A Cistern built of brick and Cement, capacity 80 barrels; good Well at the door. Stabling and Barn pretty good. 1,300 bearing Currant Bushes; a large number of Apple, Peach, Pear and Plum Trees, all in the prime of bearing. 400 bearing Grape Vines; one acre of choice Strawberries in good condition. Soil is rich, deep and free from stone. There is 7 acres of Good Timber, all the under brush cleared out, and the entire Tract under good Fence. In short, this place is in the best of order for making money. It is under-laid with coal, which will ere long be valuable.

PRICE:—$10,000; $4,000 cash, balance in six annual payments with interest, secured by Bond and Mortgage.

ALSO, A FARM IN LINCOLN CO., MO.

Of 230 acres. Will Sell or Exchange.

JOHN CROFT,

Real Estate Agent,

fe14 No. 139 Fourth St., Pittsburgh.

FOR SALE.—A Farm of about 58 acres in Union Township, Alleghany county, Pa., situate about four miles from the city on the Washington Pike. The improvements are a large two story Brick Dwelling House with 12 rooms, a two-story Spring House, a Carriage House, a large Lumber Room, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, with stabling sufficient for 50 head of cattle. There is a fine Young Orchard, comprising about 12 acres, stocked with the best varieties of fruit trees. It is all underlaid with coal. The land is in a high state of cultivation, well watered, fences good, and would suit admirably for dairy or gardening purposes.

Also, 17½ acres adjoining the above, with a good Frame House, Carriage House, good Spring House and other out-buildings; with a good Orchard in fine bearing condition. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.

Also, Farm of 173 acres, situate in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., immediately on the line of the Penna. Railroad. The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard; 120 acres cleared, balance in good timber; fencing generally good, well watered: underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Posession given immediately.

For further particulars, enquire of
G. H. TOWER,
no7 Real Estate Agent, 164 Fourth street.

FOR SALE,

A COUNTRY RESIDENCE,

AT SHADY SIDE,

On the PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD, within 20 minutes ride from the city. The house is entirely new, substantially built, convenient in its arrangements, and tastefully ornamented inside and out. It has hot and cold water, and gas fixtures throughout. Amusements.

Opera House.—The benefit of John Engler, Jr., last evening, at the Opera House, was not so great a success as we would have wished. The state of the pavements had very much to do with the small audience Another cause was probably the idea that Mr. Engler was going to skate at another place. The audience was fair, however, and the performance excellent. "The School for Scandal" was admirably given, all the parts being well sustained. Miss Charlotte Thompson, the magnificent actress, commences an engagement on Monday.

Lecture by Prof. Gunning.—To-morrow evening, at the Academy of Music, Prof. Gunning will deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association, upon "The Conformity of the Bible with Geology." A subject of such interest will no doubt attract a large audience, particularly when it is in the hands of so elegant and polished a lecturer, geologist and scholar, as Prof. Gunning. The admission is of course free.

Theatre Comique.—The spectacular drama of "Cherry and Fair Star" still draws large houses at the Theatre. The efforts of the management in securing a first-class entertainment are fully appreciated, and the scenery and acting of this grand oriental fairy spectacle draw admirably. Miss Leonora Cavender is a very versatile and charming actress as well as danseuse. She is rapidly becoming a favorite at the Theatre.

Masonic Hall.—Another large audience greeted Professor Macallister, at Masonic Hall, last evening, to witness his wonderful achievements in legerdemain. His last act, the "Elements," is as truly wonderful as anything ever witnessed in the performances of any wizard ever seen by our people. His visit here has been a magnificent success.

District Court.

Before Judge Williams.

VERDICT

In the case of Andrew D. Miller vs. owners of the steamboat LeClair—action for damages, before reported—the jury found a verdict in favor of plaintiffs for $348.82, the full amount claimed.

ACTION ON IRON CONTRACT.

Gracey & Biggerltaff vs. Gilman & Howe. Action to recover the price of iron furnished for a bridge, under contract. Plaintiffs contracted to deliver iron bolts for a bridge at Oil City. Delivery was made in accordance with the contract, but it was contended that the iron was not "good American, suitable for bridge purposes," as stipulated, for which reason it was not accepted. The price agreed on was seven cents per pound, and the quantity delivered was valued, at this rate, at $3,300. The jury retired and had not agreed upon a verdict at adjournment. Kuhn & Cassiday for plaintiffs; Purviance & Son for defendants.

Common Pleas Court.

Before Judge Sterritt.

THE COAL BOAT CASE

The case of N. J. Bigley vs. David A. McDonald—action to recover for the loss of two boats containing 47 000, bushels of coal, at the rate of twenty five cents per bushel.—went to the jury yesterday evening, but no verdict had been rendered at adjournment. Col. J. K. Kerr and M. W. Acheson for plaintiff, Thos. M. Marshall, Thos. B. Hamilton and A. M Watson for defendants.

Alleged Misdemeanors.—William Mattern, the keeper of a livery stable on Seventh street, near Liberty, made information yesterday before Alderman McMasters, charging a man named Dean with misdemeanor. He alleges that on the 8th of January the accused hired a buggy of him, and did recklessly and maliciously break up said vehicle, demolishing it. The proprietor wished to recover the value of the buggy, and he had reason to believe that Dean was making preparations to leave the city without paying. Hence the information. A warrant was issued.

Malicious Mischief.—Martin Waller yesterday made information before Alderman Strain, charging Gottlieb Lutz with malicious mischief. The parties are neighbors residing in Manchester, and Lutz, as is alleged, has opened a drain from his premises to those of Waller, by means of which the contents of the cess pool on Lutz's premises are run into deponent's cellar. A warrant was issued.

Got Bail.—John Thompson, committed to jail on Thursday by Alderman Strain to await his trial for assault and battery preferred by Jane Knox, obtained bail yesterday, and was released.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette,
Friday, February 15, 1867.

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 136¾; 1881 bonds, 109⅝; Five Twenties, old, 109¼; Five Twenties, '65, 107⅜; do new, 105½; Seven Thirties, 105⅛. Michigan Southern Railroad, 72⅝; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 83⅝; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 97; Erie, 56¼; Western Union Telegraph Company, 43⅝; Chicago and Rock Island, 97⅞; Chicago and Northwestern, 36⅝; do preferred, 68; New York Central, 100⅜; Gregory, 11½; Corydon, 9¼; Quartz Hill, 4¼.

—We have already given the provisions of the bill of Mr. Sherman reported to the Senate for retiring compound interest notes. The finance committee, it seems, favor this plan, and agree upon $80,000,000 lawful money Treasury certificates, to bear 3 per cent interest, to take the place of a corresponding amount of compound lawful money notes, now held by the National banks—$81,925,100 on the 1st of January quarterly report—the banks being authorized to use the new paper as their banking reserve to the extent of three-fifths, or 60 per cent of the required average. This proposition is esteemed not so much a positive measure of expansion as an assurance against the possible pressure upon, or inconvenience to the banking movement of the country as the compound notes fall due. In commenting upon the bill the New York Times says that the committee seemed to take it for granted that the banks will be glad to get these certificates at the rate of interest, but country banks aver that they will prefer to keep their balances in New York legal-tenders, and get four per cent, as they now do. There is little doubt of the passage of the bill in the Senate, and it will probably be accepted as the compromise measure of the different financial propositions.

—Last evening all the necessary arrangements for the retirement from business of the banking firm of Solomon Sturges' Sons, to be succeeded by the Northwestern National Bank, were completed, and the transfer went into practical effect this morning, by the removal of the latter to the premises occupied by the former. It is understood that the Northwestern will apply for power to increase its capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000. It now has a surplus of $250,000, and has the reputation in financial circles, of being one of the best managed institutions in the west. There will for the present be no change in the management—Mr. George Sturges continuing as President, and Mr. John DeKoven, as cashier.—Chicago, Tribune, Feb. 14th.

—Speculation in Wall street halts, and brokers are not making their incidental expenses. It begins to appear that the Treasury Department is not only able, but disposed to pursue the policy of contraction. The 'loan bill," so called, authorizing the conversion of $80,000,000 of compound notes into a loan at ten days notice, did not originate with Mr. Jay Cooke, or in the interest of the National banks, as has been supposed. It is a measure proceeding from the Treasury, and is intended to facilitate funding and contraction, and will be found a very effective mode of effecting these objects. The Treasury has entire confidence in its ability to fund or pay all the compounds as they mature from surplus revenue, and only ask for this bill as a mode of relieving the banks from the pressure sure to be felt when they are forced to contract by the maturity of the compound notes upon what too many of their liabilities are now based. The National banks, at their last quarterly report, held $81,000,000 of these notes, counting as the reserve of $300,000,000 of circulation and deposits, and a contraction of the bank movement must be made as fast as the Treasury cancels these notes. As the retirement of these notes would cause a panic among bank debtors, the Treasury proposes to be in a position to give the banks a short loan at 3@4 per cent, in exchange for the present interest bearing reserve, to enable them to comply with the law, and not go into liquidation or into violent contraction, as they otherwise would be forced to do for want of legal-tender reserve. In short, the Treasury, from its surplus income, under the proposed reduction of taxes, is still in a position to contract the legal tender issues, while steadily funding its short debt, and able to firmly move toward specie payments. And now a word as to funding. There will be on the 15th of February, of the first series of 7-30s, two hundred millions which in one hundred and fifty-six working days mature, and will be funded into 5-20s. This funding is quite likely to produce a money pressure if the holders do not at once send them in for conversion. The exchange of 7-30s for 5-20s requires much time, and it is probable that in August the Treasury will be overloaded with 7-30s waiting for conversion, and the owners of the 7-30s be left without anything to represent them in a form upon which money can be borrowed. With these facts in regard to the reduction of the legal tender issues, and the funding of the short debt, it is idle for people to deceive themselves with the belief that specie payments are not approaching rapidly, and with it lower prices of all commodities. Specie payments must be preceded by funding all the short debt of the Treasury, and the payment of hundreds of millions of paper money issued in its period of distress. This funding and payment is proceeding rapidly and at no remote day will be apparent to many who are going upon the theory that there is time for one more venture before preparation for a financial contraction, happily as certain as it is desirable, for legitimate business.—N. Y. Tribune.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette,
Friday, February 15, 1867.

The produce markets present no new characteristics worthy of special notice. There is no improvement to note in the demand for any of the leading commodities, and while transactions, generally, are of an important character, prices have undergone little or no change.

GROCERIES—The market is steady with a fair jobbing demand, while prices remain substantially unchanged. Fair to choice Rio Coffee is quoted at 23 to 26. Sugars—Cuba, 11¾ to 13½; Porto Rico, 12 to 14; Crushed, 16¼; "A" Coffee, 15½ to 15¾; "B" ditto, 15; "C" Extra, 14¾. Porto Rico molasses, 70 to 75. Rice, 10½ to 11½, as to quality.

GRAIN—There seems to be no demand for Wheat. We can report sales of some 1500 bush Oats, on track, at 48—small sales at 50 to 52. Rye is in demand at $1,25 for Penna. and Ohio. Barley may be quoted steady at 95 to $1 for No. 1 Spring.

FLOUR—Is dull and weak, and if, anything, prices are a shade lower. We now quote at $11,75 to $12 for standard brands of Spring Wheat; $12,25 for choice; $13,50 to $14 for Winter Wheat; and $16 to $17 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour is selling at $7¼ to $7¾ and Buckwheat at $3,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is selling in a jobbing way at 10 to 10½ for Shoulders, and 15 to 15½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 12½ to 12¾, for prime leaf. No transactions in Mess Pork or Bulk Meat.

LARD OIL—Is reported in steady demand, with regular sales at 88 to 90 for No. 2, and $1,08 to $1,10 for No. 1.

HAY—Continues to arrive pretty freely, and with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, the market is very dull, and prices are nominal at $23 to $25, for good to prime Timothy, on track.

BUTTER—Is becoming very dull again, and prices are tending downward. Prime Roll cannot fairly be quoted above 33 to 35.

EGGS—Are also coming in more freely, and prices have declined from 10 to 15c per dozen; fresh packed having been sold today at 40 to 45.

POTATOES—Continue very dull, and but little hopes of any better prices this season are now entertained. Small sales of Peach Blows at 75 to 80 per bush.

APPLES—In steady demand but unchanged—regular sales in store, at $3,50 to $4 per bbl., as to quality.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in good demand at $2,65—a round lot might bring a fraction more. Cloverseed is selling at from $8 to $10, as to quality, and Timothy at $3 to $3,25.

DRIED FRUIT—Is steady but unchanged—regular jobbing sales at 9 to 10 and 17 to 20 for Peaches—quarters and halves.

MILLFEED—Sales in store, at $1,25 to $1,30 for Shorts; $1,90 to $2 for Middlings, and $2,15 to $2,20 for Oil Meal.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette,
Friday, February 15, 1867.

CRUDE—The market continues dull and weak, and as holders are anxious to realize, prices are tending downward. We can report a sale of two thousand barrels, to arrive, on private terms—understood to be eight cents; and two thousand barrels for April delivery, at nine—the sale for April in our last report, should have been at eight and a half cents instead of nine, and a half—quite a difference. Quotations may be fairly given at eight cents, to arrive, and eight and a half to nine for April delivery. Smith's ferry oil is still selling at 7 to 7½, packages returned, and 12 to 12½, packages included, according to gravity. No operations reported in Kanawha oil.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil continues remarkably quiet, not a single operation reported for two days, though notwithstanding the demand both for present and future delivery, is limited, there is but very little oil offering at present rates, refiners, generally, preferring rather to hold off and take the chances. We quote nominally, in the absence of sales, at 30 to 30½, for April delivery in Philadelphia; 31 for May; 32 for June; and 33 for July—standard white, one cent higher. For free oil, the demand is light, being restricted almost entirely to supplying immediate wants; we continue to quote at 42 to 42½ for twenty-five and fifty barrel lots, and 43 to 44, in a retail way.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

S. B. Floyd	15	D. Bly	53
Nat. Ref. Co.	50	W. J. Glenn	42
Total			160

Milwaukee Market.

Milwaukee, February 15.—Flour unchanged. Wheat firmer at $2,08 for No. 1, and $1,94 for No. 2. Oats quiet at 44½ for No. 2. Corn steady at 70 cents. Provisions dull and weak; clear pork $19,62½.

PITTSBURGH METAL AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

Office of the Pittsburgh Gazette,
Friday, February 15, 1867.

The metal market presents but few new features worthy of special notice. As yet the mills have not resumed operations, nor has any arrangement been perfected between the mill men and the puddlers in regard to wages, but we are cognizant of some of them having looked around and inquired about metal this week, which is an indication, that they may be in the market as buyers again, and that, too, before long—it is to be hoped so at least. There is some little inquiry for Foundry Irons, but as the demand is restricted almost entirely to supplying immediate wants, the transactions generally, are of an unimportant character—hardly worth reporting. For Blooms, also, the demand is light, but as the supply is light, and as there is no disposition manifested to force sales, prices are unchanged. Manufactured Iron is dull, the orders from the south and west being light for the season, but as our rivers are again in fine navigable condition, an improvement in this branch of business may be looked for. We quote the following sales:

Cincinnati Market.

Cincinnati, February 15.—Flour is in moderate demand; Superfine Spring and Winter, $9,25@10,25. The demand is chiefly for the better grades. Trade brands, $11,50@13,50, and fancy brands, $14@16. Wheat is firmer and Spring is a shade higher, closing at $2,45 for No. 1 Spring, and $2,80 for Winter. There is very little of the latter in the market. Corn is dull and prices drooping, closing at 55c for ear, and 60c for shelled. Oats dull at 50c for No. 1, in elevators. Rye, prices nominal. Whisky dull and prices declined to $2,25, in bond. Cotton is unchanged and dull at 29@30c for Middling. Provisions generally dull and there is but little demand. Mess Pork was offered at $20; Lard at 12c, and bulk meats at 7¼, 9¼, and 10¼c for shoulders, sides, and clear sides, loose; 100,000 pounds of Shoulders were sold at 7¾c. Bacon steady at 9¼c for Shoulders; 10¾c for Sides, and 12¼c for Clear Sides. Sugar Cured Hams 15@16c. Linseed Oil is firm at $1,40; stock light. Butter firm at 27@30c. Cheese is in fair demand at 16½c. Clover seed is firm at $8,25@8,50. Gold, buying at 1,36¼, and selling in exchange steady at 1,36¼@1,37.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, February 15.—Flour dull but holders are firm. Wheat dull but prices are firm and steady; sales at $2,17 for No. 1, and $1,83½ for No. 2. Corn is active and firmer at 81@81½c. Oats are dull and without any essential change. Provisions—The market continues dull and almost lifeless, yet there is no disposition on the part of holders to a lower range of prices. There were small sales of Mess Pork at $18,75. Sweet Pickled Hams are quoted at 10¾@11c. Long cut hams 11c, packed. Prime steam Lard, 11c. Dressed hogs are dull, owing to the unfavorable weather, at 5@10c per 100 pounds lower; sales were made at $7,25@7,50, and at the close the demand was light at $7,30@7,60, dividing on 200 pounds. Live Hogs are firm and 5@10c higher, under good packing and shipping demands; sales were made at $6,10@6,80. Receipts—6,000 barrels Flour; 17,000 bushels Wheat; 15,000 bushels Corn; 10,000 bushels Oats, and 2,100 head of hogs. Shipments—5,000 barrels Flour; 8,000 bushels Wheat, and 4,000 bushels Corn.

New York Dry Goods Matters.

New York, February 15.—Cotton goods; fair business in staples at prices showing no great change; some styles a shade easier, while others are a shade firmer indicating that prices have about touched bottom. Standard Sheetings, 21½@22. Bleached Muslins of best makes steady and firm at 37½ for New York Mills; 33½ for Wamsuttas, and 25 for Lonsdale and Hill Sempexidem. Prints firm and in good request; Sprague's Fancy bring 18; Conestoga, 18; Mallory, 16½, and Home, 12. Ginghams ½c higher. Armune Delaines up to 17, paper. Cambrics ½c higher, and Silesias ¼ to 1c.

Albany Cattle Market.

Albany, February 15.—The cattle market opened somewhat higher, but towards the close showed evidence of weakness, and later sales showed little or no improvement. The top prices paid were 9½c for a prime lot of Kentucky steers, and from that prices ranged down to 5c for inferior. The total receipts were 3,500 head, most of which changed hands; there is a better demand for eastern markets than for New York. Sheep in moderate request, at 5@7c; receipts, 5,000 head. Hogs, 7@8½c; receipts for the week 1,700 head.

Louisville Market.

Louisville, February 15.—Tobacco; 160 hhds, at full rates for cutting and leaf. Flour; 2,975 bbls superfine, at $10. Wheat; prime red, at $2,95. Corn; shelled, at 68@70c; ear, at 63@65c. Oats, at 65c. Mess Pork, at $21 in bulk. Shoulders, at 8c, loose. Bacon; shoulders, at 9¾c, packed; clear sides, at 13c, packed; hams at 14c, packed. Lard, at 12¼c. Sugar; New Orleans, at 14c. Cotton, at 29c. Whisky, at $2,26.

New Orleans Market.

New Orleans, February 14.—Cotton easier; sales, 5,000 bales; low middling, 30¼@31c; middling, 31½@32; receipts, 1,769 bales; exports, 1,309 bales. Sugar unchanged. Molasses stiffer; fair, 74c; prime to choice, 78@79c. Flour dull; superfine, $11,62½; extra, $11,75@15,00. Oats firm, at 85c. Hay $33@34. Whisky and Tobacco quiet. Gold 136¾. Bank Sterlin 47. Bank Checks ½ discount. Freigots unchanged.

St. Louis Market.

St. Louis, February 15.—Tobacco quiet and unchanged. Flour dull and weak; superfine, at $8,50@9,10; extra, $10,50@11; double extra, at $11,75@12,25. Wheat firm with light transactions; spring, at $2,20@2,28; fall at $2,75@2,80. Corn is extremely dull, and prices are 1@2c lower. Whisky heavy and dull, at $2,24@2,25.

Baltimore Market.

Baltimore, February 15.—Coffee firm; Rio 13½@13¾ for cargoes. Flour dull. Wheat nominal. White declining, at 86c; yellow, 95@96c. Oats, 56@57c. Clover Seed, $8,50@8,75. Pork quiet; new mess, $21,75. RIVER NEWS.

The river rose rapidly during Thursday night and all day yesterday, and was still swelling steadily last evening, with nearly twenty-three feet in the channel. The rise thus far has been principally in the Allegheny, though the Monongahela rose considerably, and it was reported in the afternoon that there were thirty feet at Brownsville, but this is doubtless an exaggeration. At last accounts, the Allegheny was falling at Oil City, with but six feet in the channel at that point, and it is said that the ice is broke as far up as Tidioute. Thus far, the freshet has not done much damage, with the exception of carrying off a number of oil barges and flats.

There has been no arrivals or departures since our last report, aside from the Brownsville packets. The ice coming out of the Allegheny river has for the time being stopped navigation. The Leni Leoti and Grey Eagle, from Parkersburg, and the Robt. Moore, from Portsmouth, are due, and the two first named boats may possibly be found in port to-day, though it is a little doubtful.

The R. C. Gray came very near sinking a boat of coal, belonging to Fawcett & Co. on Thursday, a short distance below here in the fog. As it is, she knocked one end of it in, and had to leave the mate and a number of deck hands to stop the leak, and pump her out. The coal boat was tied up at the time of the accident.

Capt. Johnston is having a pair of new smoke stacks made for the Glasgow, which, when mounted, will add materially to her outward appearance.

The towboat Fearless left for Cincinnati other day with a tow of coal. It is probable that others will get within the next few days—at present, there is but little coal ready for shipment.

The Silver Lake No. 4, Capt. Todd, is filling up steadily for St. Louis, and will leave to-day without fail, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind.

The Bellevernon, Capt. Darragh, jr, is also loading for the same point, and will leave at an early day next week.

The Columbia, Capt. Reed is announced for Nashville, and the Armenia, Capt. McCallum, is up for New Orleans—both good boats.

The Wheeling and Parkersburg packet Eagle was so seriously damaged by the recent break up, that she is being dismantled.

The Mary McDonald has been sold at St. Louis for $40,000 to Capt. Dave Silver. She originally cost $60,000.

The freight rates regulated by the Charitable Marine Association, of St. Louis, are an imposition, and merchants refuse to be governed by them.

The towboat Hercules has been purchased at New Orleans by M. S. Mepham. She will bring to Cincinnati the hull of the Osborn recently burned.

The towboats Alps and Ajax are coming up from New Orleans on their way to Pittsburgh, with sixteen barges each.

The Martha E. Allen, for carrying passengers without a license at the time of a recent prize fight near New Orleans, has been fined $1,000—twice as much as she made.

The Cincinnati Gazette, of Thursday, says: Mr. T. Rogers, the General Freight Agent of the Memphis Dean Line of packets, is off for a few days to the Iron or Smoky city, situated in the State of Pennsylvania, not greatly distant—the State we mean—from New York.

The Kenton and America were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday. We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial:

Yesterday morning, about 3 o'clock, the safe of the America was pried open, and robbed of all its contents, some $800. Capt. T. C. Golding, Mr. Clark, the clerk, and the steward of the boat, were also robbed of all the money in their possession, amounting in all to $1,200. The America arrived from New Orleans, at 12 o'clock Tuesday night, after a long and tedious trip through the ice. Three passengers who came below here, on Tuesday, were arrested on suspicion of the burglary.

We also extract the following items from the same paper: The New York ran through heavy ice from Pittsburgh to Pomeroy. She brings a full cargo, discharges 25 bales of sheeting here, and will fill out with furniture, &c., and departs for St. Louis to-day at noon. Yesterday was the fifty-fifth day we have had light and heavy running ice in the Ohio river past Cincinnati. This is unprecedented. The submarine Underwriter has visited fifteen wrecks of sunken steamers, all of which she has succeeded in raising. She has raised three steamers during the past month—the Emperor, Argonaut No. 2 and Mary Swan. Capt. J. B. Coffman, of New Richmond, contemplates going on the river again. He is in the city. Dr. Yore, of St. Louis, passed through the city yesterday, en route from Pittsburgh for home. He still persists in smoking the fragant Havana. The River and Harbor Appropriation Bill that was to have been reported to the House on last Monday by Mr. Eggleston, of Ohio, provides the amount of $3,000,000 for the improvement of internal navigation. Of this sum, $300 000 is for the obstruction in the Hudson River New York, known as the overslaugh; $1,000,000 for the Desmoines rapids; $200,000 for obstructions below New New Orleans, in the Mississippi river; $200,000 for Rock Island, in the Mississippi; and only $100,000 for the Ohio river. The balance is principally directed to lake improvements. Taking a statiscal review of the importance of the Ohio river in commerce, and an observation of the obstructions presented to navigation of its waters, we think the proportion is very small. It is the thoroughfare of very nearly as great a trade as the Mississippi, and is certainly entitled to enough to perfect it for its present and largely increasing wants, before so large an appropriation as a million dollars is provided for the embryo commerce of the lakes. The Ohio should have an appropriation of at least $1,000,000, if Congress can afford $1,100,000 for the Mississippi.

GOVERNMENT SALE.

The Property known as the "Government Tannery & Steam Saw Mill," with Seventy-five Acres of Land, near San Antonio, Texas.

SEALED PROPOSALS, in duplicate, will be received up to the FIRST DAY OF MARCH, 1867, for the purchase of 75 acres of Land, (more or less,) together with the Buildings erected thereon, and the appurtenances appertaining, that is to say,

ONE TANNERY, containing 12 Stone Lime Vats, Fifty-two Wooden Vats, Seven Stone Pools; and capable of tanning 15,000 hides per annum.

ONE STEAM SAW MILL, capable of sawing 2,000 feet of lumber daily.

ONE SMALL STONE BUILDING.

The above property is situated about two miles above San Antonio, on the San Antonio River, and the water is conducted to the establishment by a race of hewn stone laid in cement.

The land was purchased and improvements made by the late so-called Confederate Government, and are estimated to have cost $150,000 in gold.

The property has been under lease for the year 1866, at a monthly rent of $400, payable in advance. A secured title in fee simple will be given by the United States Government.

Proposals will be marked "Proposals for Government Tannery and Saw Mill," and addressed to LEGAL.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY, ss—The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

To the Sheriff of said County, Greeting:

Whereas, Samuel A. Long, lately in our District Court, before our Judges of our said Court at Pittsburgh, to wit: On the 8th day of January, A. D., 1867, by the judgment of our said Court recorded against John B. Sanderson, administrator of Louis A. D'Israeli, deceased, a judgment for the sum of twenty-one hundred and ninety-one and 53-100 dollars for this debt, as well as twenty dollars for his costs, and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said John B. Sanderson, administrator of Louis A. D'Israeli, is convict as appears to us of record; and whereas, by the insinuation of the said Samuel A. Long, we have in our said Court understood, that although the judgment in form aforesaid be given, yet execution thereof still remains to be made, whereof he has prayed us to grant unto him in this behalf a proper remedy, and we being willing that what is right and just should be done, herein do command you that by good and lawful men of your bailiwick, you give notice to the said John B. Sanderson, administrator, &c., of Louis A. D'Israeli, with notice to the widow, if any, and the heirs at law, (who are unknown,) to plaintiff unknown, of said Louis A. D'Israeli, deceased, that they be and appear before our Judges, at Pittsburgh, at our District Court, there to be held for the county aforesaid, on the FIRST MONDAY OF MARCH NEXT, to show, if anything, for himself or themselves they can say why the said plaintiff ought not to have his execution against them for debt, interest and costs aforesaid, according to the force, form and effect of the recovery aforesaid, if he shall think fit; and further to do and receive whatsoever our said Court, shall then and thereof and concerning him in this behalf consider, and have you then there the names of those by whom you shall make known to them, and this writ.

Witness, the Hon. M. HAMPTON, President of our said Court at Pittsburgh, the 19th day of January, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

JONES, CRAWFORD & VOGEL, Agts.

THE MOST POWERFUL AND TRULY BRILLIANT COAL OIL GAS LIGHT EVER PRODUCED.

Adopted by U. S. Government.

Non explosive. Cheap and Beautiful. Gives a brilliant light three-fold greater than any other lamp. This patent is adapted to all lamp purposes, and as the wick is merely a conductor, never requires any trimming. Burners on this principle applied to ordinary lamps.
